RESILIENCE CAPITAL PARTNERS EXITS ITS INVESTMENT IN LUND INTERNATIONAL

Cleveland, Ohio (05/02/2011) – Resilience Capital Partners (“Resilience”) and Linsalata Capital Partners (“LinCap”), both Cleveland-based private equity firms, have sold their investments in Lund International Holding Company (“Lund”) to an affiliate of Highlander Partners, L.P. (“Highlander”) on April 27, 2011. Lund is a portfolio company of The Resilience Fund II, L.P.

Resilience, in partnership with LinCap and management, acquired the assets of Lund in November 2007. Resilience and LinCap brought a new senior management team to the business at the onset to lead the execution of a strategic plan to reposition the company, streamline operations and revitalize growth.

Headquartered outside Atlanta, Lund is a leading designer, manufacturer and marketer of branded accessories for light and heavy trucks, sport utility vehicles (SUVs), crossover utility vehicles (CUVs) and passenger cars. Lund serves a diversified distribution network including warehouse distributors, automotive parts retailers and original equipment manufacturers (OEMs).

“We are very pleased with the successful sale of our investment in Lund, which has generated excellent returns for our investors in a challenging market environment,” said Bassem Mansour, managing partner of Resilience. “Lund is further evidence of our firm’s successful track record in creating long-term value in underperforming businesses through the implementation of strategic, financial and operational restructuring initiatives. We are also grateful for the valuable contributions LinCap and management made as part of our successful investment team.”

“We have been very pleased with our accomplishments during the last three years,” said George Scherff, CEO. “LinCap and Resilience were resourceful partners who supported the management team and helped us to execute the strategic plan.” Mitch Fogle, President of Lund added, “We look forward to continuing our positive momentum with our new partners at Highlander. With the solid foundation that has been already built, our future as the leader in our market is very bright.”
